1. According to reports reaching North Thailand from Yunnanese traders LU Han and LUNG Yun, former Governors of Yunnan, have been arrested by the Chinese Communists.

2. LUNG has been taken to Peiping.

25X1X. Comment. The two men are half-brothers, Lolo tribesmen, who, for the lack of better alternative, adhered to the Chinese Communist Government in 1950. LUNG was self-made governor of Yunnan from 1927-45 when he was ousted by CHIANG Kai-shek who apparently disliked his independence. LU Han was his replacement in Yunnan in August 1945.

25X1A Comment. LU and LUNG were reported to have been 25X1A restricted in their movements in early 1951 and to have been purged in April according to Nationalist sources. As of 2 November LU was reported by the Chinese Communist radio to have been elected to the National Committee of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference.
